

STONEBOROUGH HOUSE

bed & breakfast

Stoneborough House is a fine Edwardian home situated within walking distance of Budleigh Salterton town, the Otter Estuary and the sea front which forms part of the Jurassic Coast. We offer three elegantly furnished, very comfortable en-suite bedrooms, two doubles and one twin. There is also a stunning guest sitting room and ample off-road parking.

DIRECTIONS FROM NEWTON POPPLEFORD OR THE NORTH: Take the B3178 south from Newton Poppleford, through East Budleigh. Approx. 500 yards after entering Budleigh Salterton you will pass Bridge Road on right hand side. We are 100 yards after this, again on right hand side. There are two driveways side by side. We are the right hand one.
